BEDFORD PUTS — Readers & Writers — FIRST

Bedford/St.Martin's is as passionately committed to the English discipline as ever. We put readers and writers first, and that shows in everything we do—from the products we create and the customer service we provide, to the events we sponsor that serve our instructors and students.

At Bedford, support for those who choose our books and digital tools is our first priority. The Bedford/St. Martin's English Community is now our home for professional resources, including Bedford Bits, our popular blog site offering new ideas for the composition classroom. Connect and converse with a growing team of Bedford authors and top scholars who blog on Bits: Andrea Lunsford, Traci Gardner, April Lidinsky, John O'Hara, David Starkey, Donna Winchell, and Miriam Moore, among others.

INTRODUCING ACHIEVE.

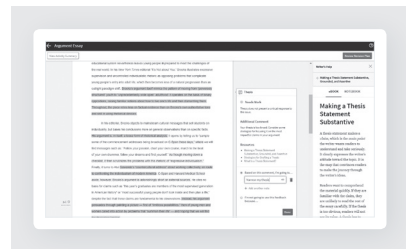

Achieve is a comprehensive set of interconnected teaching and assessment tools that incorporates the most effective elements from Macmillan's market leading solutions.

The instructors and students that participated in our co-design approach identified their biggest challenges in the writing course, and we set out to solve them with features that provide opportunities to draft, reflect, review, revise, and source check.

The result is a flexible, integrated suite of tools for designing and facilitating writing assignments, paired with actionable insights that make students' progress towards outcomes clear and measurable.

The Writer's Loop A Guide to College Writing

Lauren Ingraham

University of Tennessee, Chattanooga

Jeanne Law Bohannon

Kennesaw State University

Student Companion available

Available in Achieve

The Writer's Loop presents a refreshing practical approach to writing, based on the habits of strong writers, who pause often, reflect, and loop backwards and forwards as they revise on their way to a final draft. With integrated videos, relatable examples, clear explanations, and a consistent, scaffolded learning framework, each chapter engages writers through reflection and practices that support common types of academic writing, including essays, arguments, and research projects. With The Writer's Loop, your students will always be revising.

Achieve with Ingraham and Bohannon, The Writer's Loop combines instruction with integrated videos, powerful writing tools, and customizable multi-draft writing assignments.

Everyone's an Author, 3e (with and without Readings)

Andrea Lunsford • Michal Brody • Lisa Ede • Beverly J. Moss •
Carole Clark Papper • Keith Walters

Because students are reading as well as writing more than ever, Everyone's an Author bridges the gap between the writing students already do—online, at home, in their communities—and the writing they'll do in college and beyond. It builds student confidence by showing that they already know how to think rhetorically and offers advice for applying those skills as students, professionals, and citizens. Because students are also reading more than ever, the Third Edition includes NEW advice for reading critically, engaging respectfully with others, and distinguishing facts from misinformation.

Both versions are available as ebooks.

The Little Seagull Handbook, 3e

Richard Bullock • Michal Brody • Francine Weinberg

The pocket-sized handbook that does the work of a full-sized one. Offers succinct advice students need about grammar, punctuation, documentation, the writing process, and the kinds of writing they are most often assigned.

Also available in a version with exercises and as an ebook providing four-year access.

InQuizitive for Writers

inquizitive.wwnorton.com

An easy-to-use, adaptive learning tool that offers each student personalized practice in sentence-editing and research skills. With InQuizitive, students learn in a fun, game-like environment—by dragging and clicking, wagering points, and thinking about what they know and don't know. Links to The Little Seagull Handbook and explanatory feedback give students immediate advice.

Back to the Lake, 4e

Thomas Cooley

Back to the Lake helps developing writers succeed by offering practical writing instruction and engaging essays organized by rhetorical pattern. The Fourth Edition incorporates NEW readings—including ones debating the value of “grit”—NEW advice on reading critically, and a NEW chapter on editing sentences.

Available as an ebook for $30.

The Norton Reader, Full and Shorter 15e

Melissa Goldthwaite • Joseph Bizup • Anne Fernald • John Brereton

This trusted collection fosters close reading and careful writing about ideas that matter. The Fifteenth Edition features more than 60 NEW contemporary essays, and three NEW chapters: Self and Society; Where We Live, What We Live For; and In Conversation.

Both versions available as ebooks for $30 or under.

Reading the World, 4e

Michael Austin

Organized around nine enduring themes, Reading the World is the only great ideas reader to offer a global perspective, allowing students to explore the development of ideas across cultures. The Fourth Edition now includes NEW chapters on Ethics & Empathy and Visual Arguments.

Available as an ebook for $30.

The Norton Writer's Prize

The Norton Writer's Prize recognizes outstanding essays written by undergraduates. Three prizes will be awarded in 2020.
